

Inspire

Calling all professionals!

Working towards a career in Primary Education?

If you are looking for a rewarding career where you can transform lives, then teaching may well be the career for you! Inspire Teaching Schools are here to help you achieve your ambitions through our Schools Direct programme.

What's in it for you?

The very best opportunities to grow and evolve into an enthusiastic, professional Primary School Teacher

Access to only the finest Primary School placements, closely aligned to your strengths, personal development ambitions and your desire to be supported.

Support from teachers who have already transformed the lives of countless children.

The best place to learn about teaching is in the classroom!

Placement in the best school is the key. Inspire will not only ensure that your chosen school fits your specific needs but we will also support you throughout your Initial Teacher Training placement with the life-skills necessary for today's Primary School environment.
