

Dear Parent/Carer,

We understand that SATs week can be a very stressful time for all involved – children, teachers and parents alike – and as a result of this, we have decided to put on a Breakfast Club during the week, so that children can hopefully start the tests without any anxieties and a full tummy, which is highly important for them to succeed.

Each day, during the week of the 9th May, children can come into school at about 8am, there will be staff here to meet them. Once here, we will play some games outside (weather permitting) and have some breakfast. Even though the tests are only Monday-Thursday, the club will still run on Friday and we will have a special celebratory breakfast to start our 'fun day'. The Breakfast Club is free for all children

I really do feel that this would benefit the children to be around each other and feel calmer about the day ahead. In previous years, it has been a huge success and we have had incredibly high attendance rates, with children themselves stating that it helped them to stay relaxed and reduce anxiety. We are once again hoping to have the whole cohort attending.

Please can you fill out the slip below and return it to school to indicate whether your child will be attending the breakfast club and whether they have any dietary requirements. I appreciate that some children have clubs etc, on some days so have allowed a space for this to be stated on the reply slip.

The children have worked incredibly hard towards their tests and I am incredibly proud of them, it will all be over soon and we can breathe a huge sigh of relief! Thank you for your support throughout this period – it has been appreciated.

Yours sincerely
